A Meddlesome Woman

Takashi-kun, I'll be paying you a visit at 3PM today so make sure to head straight home when you leave.
It's the one day you have to make sure to properly clean the house!
So it's that time of the year again huh..
A home visit...

Oh god, I'm getting nervous now.
I can't believe I'm visiting Takashi-kun's house on my first home visit.
I'll be meeting with the parents of the person I love...

TLN: First, Megumi said お母さん (mother) and then she corrected herself and said お義母さん (mother-in-law), but she pronounced them both the same (Okaa-san), the difference was in the kanji used.
